By your signature below, you agree to the following:

I understand that the use of and traveling to/from the Idaho City Area yurts can be dangerous. I carefully considered the risks which include, but are not limited to: being caught and disoriented in snowstorms; becoming lost and not finding the yurt; falling and colliding with trees, rocks, or other objects while skiing, snowshoeing, mountain biking, hiking, or horseback riding; becoming exhausted while traveling; finding the yurt damaged; receiving injuries from using the equipment in the yurt; being caught in an avalanche; developing frostbite or hypothermia; and being hit by lightning.

To minimize the risks, I agree to prepare carefully for the yurt trip. I understand that locating the yurts can be difficult, and I understand the importance of having some members of my yurt party well acquainted with the yurt location prior to our trip. Even then, I realize that we may not find the yurt, and we will be prepared, if necessary, to spend the night outside.

I also understand that the yurt or its contents could be damaged, and I understand that it may be necessary to collect firewood for the wood stove. And, that the use of the yurt's upper bunk bed by small children and sleepwalkers may be dangerous.

I have made a careful decision that I am willing to accept and assume all risks. I certify that I am in good health and have no physical limitations, which would preclude safe use of the yurts. I will not, nor will any of my heirs or assigns, hold the Idaho Department of Parks and Recreation, Boise National Forest, or any volunteer support groups liable for negligence or for any injuries or death or property loss.

If user is under 18 years old, parent/guardian must consent. I, as parent or guardian of minor under 18 years old, hereby consent to the terms and conditions set forth in this release form.
